

The Interior Journal.

E. C. WALTON.

EX SPEAKER KEIFER, who was raised from the dead in Ohio and returned to Congress after an interim of 20 years, declares that he intends to bring in a bill to reduce the number of Southern Representatives in Congress whenever the whites of that region rob the Negroes of the suffrage, and that he will insist on the passage of the measure. This has been Representative Crumpacker's speciality, but when it comes to this species of demagoguery he will find that he is no match for the veteran ex-Speaker. But while the proposition was indorsed in the Republican national platform on which President McKinley was nominated, neither he nor any other Republican statesman of influence has ever made an earnest effort to realize it in the legislation of Congress. The shrewdest Republican politicians have no notion of endangering their Congressional representation in the North by a warfare of sectionalism in a futile attempt to reduce the representation of the South.

SYLVESTER LAMB, recently elected to the State Senate from Toledo, O., as an independent, is the envy of the Legislature. The Senate is a tie between the democrats and republicans and Mr. Lamb, holding the deciding vote, can get anything he wants. He has been offered everything in sight by each side to enter into caucus, but he refuses to join either. Wouldn't there be picking for him if a United States Senator had to be elected, which unfortunately there is not?

TEXAS, in the fiscal years 1906 and 1907, will pay $900,000 to Confederate veterans for pensions, besides expending $154,538 for the support of the Confederate Home. Kentucky and other Southern States are aiding in making the last days comfortable of those who fought for the cause they loved and money could not be better expended.

THE hanging of Mrs. Rogers, a fiend incarnate, will raise a great howl and cry over the country against capital punishment. Hanging is about as poor a use as a human being can be put to, but there are crimes that can only be even partially atoned by it, and when they are committed, women as well as men should feel the halter draw.

A DISPATCH says that Gen. Basil W. Duke headed a delegation of Louisville republicans to Washington to ask that Postmaster T. H. Baker, of Louisville, be reappointed. Shame on the old ex-Confed.

HON. REED EMBRY, of the Danville News, and Representative-elect of Boyle, has announced for Judge Paynter for U. S. Senator and gives a column or so of good reasons for doing so.

POLITICAL.

Peyton Randolph has been appointed postmaster at Vanhook, Pulaski county. Col. John B. Thompson, of Harrodsburg, will probably be a candidate for governor. Senator Gorman was re-elected chairman of the United States Senate minority caucus.

The House voted an appropriation of $11,000,000 toward the construction of the Panama canal.

Much opposition is in store for the proposed $11,000,000 appropriation by Congress for the Panama canal.

Senator John H. Mitchell, of Oregon, died at Portland, as the result of a hemorrhage which followed the extraction of four teeth.

A delegation of 225 representative men of Oklahoma has arrived in Washington to push the Statehood bill in the new Congress.

Representative Hopkins, of the 10th Kentucky district, has been decided upon as the Kentucky member of the Democratic Congressional Committee.

W. M. Howard, defeated democratic candidate for Representative in the Laurel-Rockcastle district, served notice of contest on James G. Yadan, republican.

Confederates at Washington have adopted a resolution thanking the President for his recommendation that neglected graves of Confederate soldiers be given attention.

It is believed Secretary Shaw is giving serious thought to the question of making temporary deposits in some of the banks of the larger cities with a view to relieving the financial situation.

Senator and Mrs. McCreary are domiciled, as last year, at the Hotel Cochran, and are decidedly the most sought after guests in the house. The Senator was cordially received by the President a few days ago, says a Washington dispatch.

Shackelford, of Missouri, and Lamar, of Florida, will not be members of the new Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee of Congress. Their failure to agree with a majority of the Democrats of the committee in caucus at the last Congress is said to be the explanation.

Here and There.

R. L. Albright sold to Dr. Hughes 25 acres near Crab Orchard for $100.

Maj. George Watts, formerly of Madison county, died at Alexandria, La.

David Street rented to Thomas Ray his farm near Crab Orchard for $650.

The overalls factory of O'Bryan Bros., Nashville, was destroyed by fire, entailing a loss of $75,000. Lyles, Black & Co., were also slightly damaged.

The Chinese Guilds at Hong Kong have drawn up a series of demands which they insist must be granted before the anti-American boycott is declared off.

The barn of John E. Thompson, who resides near Loretto, Marion county, was burned together with 17 young mules and a lot of feed. The origin of the fire is unknown. The estimated loss is $3,000.

There are 5,000 fewer post-offices in the United States now than four years ago. This might look like a decrease in the postal business, but that is not the case, for it is the rural free delivery routes that have shoved the little post-offices out of business.

Deputy Sheriff Grant Holliday, of Breathitt county, was shot and killed at Jackson yesterday afternoon while endeavoring to arrest Jake and Jerry Noble. Jake Noble was shot in the face by Holliday and is seriously wounded, but probably will recover.

MATRIMONIAL.

J. H. King and Miss Jennie E. Tarter will be married at Moreland Thursday.

Dudley E. Denton and Miss Lena Smith, prominent young people of Somerset, were married last week.

Willis Bishop, aged 18, and Miss Clara Bishop, 14, will be married to-day at W. W. Menefee's in the East End.

There will be a double wedding in the Mt. Xenia section Thursday, but we are sworn to secrecy concerning names.

Parents of a young lady married at Eminence published a card of thanks to members of the Christian church who took time to attend and the very efficient manner in which the minister performed the ceremony.

The epidemic of matrimony which has raged so fiercely fall all and made such extensive inroads upon this season's crop of bachelors has added to its list another pair of victims—Miss Lillie Peyton, one of the very finest young women Middlesborough has ever had the honor to claim, and one Samuel Houston Fulkerson, of more or less local and "furrin" notoriety. Old Lady Rumor has been throwing out hints that these young folks were about to break out with matrimonialitis (which, we have heard, is not as dangerous as smallpox, really) and it is definitely announced that the wedding is to take place next Thursday evening, December 14, at the bride's home, Twentieth street and Amesbury avenue. —Middlesboro News.

Furious Fighting.

"For seven years," writes Geo. W. Boffman, of Harper, Wash., "I had a bitter battle, with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won, and cured my diseases, by the use of Electric Bitters. I unhesitatingly recommend them to all, and don't intend in the future to be without them in the house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine, to have cured such a bad case as mine." Sold, under guarantee to do the same for you, by G. L. Penny, Stanford, Lyne Bros., of Crab Orchard; at 50c a bottle. Try them today.

MR.
